BRENNAN MASTERSON SOUTH ASIA

Today our Seed Sower is Brennan Masterson, of South Asia. In Brennan's part of the world he is constantly reminded that becoming a Christian can be costly in many ways. He tells what happened when a man we'll call Deepak (Say DEE-pack) accepted Christ as Savior.

Deepak's family disowned him and kicked him out of their home. He was not allowed to attend his brother's wedding, nor allowed to see the brother's first child. Deepak's brother, Rahul (say rah-HULL) saw all this, yet he also became a Christian. Now these two brothers are taking the gospel to new places. Their own family cut all ties with them; now fellow Christians are their only family.

So often we in America take the gospel for granted and forget that knowing Christ personally is the most precious thing there is.

Over the next two weeks, let's remember to pray for Brennan as he faithfully shares the gospel in South Asia. We should pray that his work will be fruitful and that we remember the cost of following Christ.
